To Opt-Out of Direct Marketing Association (DMA) Lists

You may not Opt-Out from DMA offers through this website.

The Direct Marketing Association (DMA) tracks consumers who prefer not to receive mail or telephone solicitations. The DMA can provide information about opting out of lists produced by companies that subscribe to its Mail and Telephone Preference Services. You may contact the DMA at the following web address: <https://www.dmachoice.org/>.

To find out more about credit reports, your rights as a consumer, the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the FACT Act

Please visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

To request a copy of your credit report from the Consumer Credit Reporting Companies

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), as amended by the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act, requires each of the nationwide Consumer Reporting Companies to provide you with a free copy of your credit report, at your request, once every 12 months. www.AnnualCreditReport.com is the only web source authorized by all three nationwide Consumer Credit Reporting Companies, Equifax, Experian and TransUnion, from which free annual credit file disclosures can be requested. Consumers are able to order their credit reports under the roll-out schedule established by federal law. For more information on this subject visit <http://www.ftc.gov> and click on the "for consumers" link.

You may also call toll free: 1-877-322-8228 to request your free annual credit file disclosure.

Deaf and hard of hearing consumers can access our TDD service by calling 7-1-1 and referring the Relay Operator to 1-800-821-7232
